CHILDREN'S CORNER

The Wise Men gave gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. These are gifts fit for a king! What would you give Baby Jesus? Perhaps He would need diapers or toys? What about something you cannot buy at a store? Jesus loves everyone, even the ones who want to hurt Him. Maybe the best gift we could give would be the gift of inclusion? When we show others love, we are doing what Jesus has taught us to do. Read together The Big Umbrella by Amy June Bates. See how including everyone is helping one another! https://youtu.be/nhxGK_qZRCg

BASH YOUTH GROUP

Here is what our youth did this week!

We discussed our highs and lows for the week and for 2020. To start off the new year, we also made attainable goals for ourselves for 2021! Join us in making a goal for yourself!

52 ways to make a difference:

This week our youth is making a difference by not being self-defeating.

What do you do that is self-defeating? Is it a habit like nail biting or constantly playing with your hair? Perhaps it's just that you mumble instead of speaking up, and then say "nothing" when asked to repeat what you said. Maybe you blow up at your friends/family over little things. What can you realistically change? Do you really want to change? Is there anything you can do that would allow you to feel happier and more empowered? Find support to help maintain your commitment to stop a self-defeating habit!

zoom with Amber and the youth group Sunday mornings -join in Sunday school at 10:30 then stay for youth group at 11:00am.
